AT A GLANCE

ICA 2018 Mobile App

The free mobile app is available for Android and Apple phones and includes the full program with all sessions, speakers, CVs and presentations and can also be used to design your individual congress schedule. The app also contains all floor plans of the venue, information on the exhibitors and sponsors, FAQs as well as the ICA 2018 Challenge, where all attendees are welcome to participate! Alternatively, the app is also available as a web version accessible at <https://event.crowdcompass.com/ica2018>.

Always up-to-date!

Social Media

An activity stream offered as part of the ICA 2018 mobile app features photos, impressions and posts from the ICA 2018. The stream depends on the commitment of the whole community. Please feel free to share your photos and thoughts with your colleagues on the activity stream or via Twitter and Instagram. The hashtags used within the social media platforms are: #ICA2018, #VICA2018, #VirtualICA

Full Program

The program consists of various sessions, each with up to 5 slots for contributed presentations and invited speaker presentations. A detailed overview of all sessions can be found in the detailed program and in the mobile app. Please note that the number of slots per session varies and it is therefore not recommended to change rooms within one session. It is not necessary to register to attend sessions.
